CLIFTON WOMAN IS KILLED IN MACHINE ACCIDENT MONDAY

Mrs. Reece Webster Killed When Automobile in Which She and
Her Husband Were Riding
Turns Off High Embankment.

Word has been received in this city of the death of Mrs. Reece Webster, wife of a prominent Clifton citizen, who died from injuries received in an automobile wreck near Deming last Monday. The car in which Mr. and Mrs. Webster were traveling went off a high embankment a short distance north of Deming, near the bridge over the Mimbres river. The car turned over three times before it reached the bottom, the report said, and both Mr. and Mrs. Webster were badly hurt. Mrs. Webster died three hours after the accident. Mr. Webster is in a serious condition in the "Ladies' Hospital" of Deming. Mrs. Webster, besides being bruised and crushed when the car turned over, was run through by the steering rod on the car, which broke and penetrated both her legs.

With a party of 20 good roads advocates from Clifton, in five cars, the Websters arrived in Deming Monday and had started for Magdalena, N. M., to attend a good roads convention. Those in the party besides the Websters were: W. K. Kelly, editor of the Copper Era, and wife; James H. Kirby, county assessor of Greenlee county; B. F. Bowman, city street commissioner; D. D. Boyles and niece, the Misses Frederica Wilke and Edna Wilke; G. A. Franz, of the Franz-Baker company; Steve Shaw and "Rocky" Miller, of Silver City.

Mrs. Webster's body will be sent to Oswego, Kan., for burial.

The Websters are residents of Clifton, where both brothers are engaged in the cattle business. George Webster and family moved to El Paso some months ago, but Reece Webster remained in Clifton.

42-piece dinner set given away at the Royal tonight.

WIDELY KNOWN VISITOR.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Krehbiel of Chicago, will arrive today in this city where they will be guests at the residence of Mrs. Krehbiel's brother, Walter D. Evans of Warren. William Farnum, Master Picture Actor, Is Seen in Interesting Play at the Lowell and Royal Theatres for Two Days.

The cast engaged to support William Farnum in the William Fox production of "The Plunderer," a screen version of Roy Norton's best known and most successful novel is an unusually powerful one even for a William Fox photo-play. The Plunderer will be shown at the Lowell and at the Royal tomorrow. Harry Spangler, the most popular juvenile man in America, plays opposite to Mr. Farnum in the striking and sympathetic part of Dick Townsend. Mr. Spangler brings to this role all the skill and finesse that have made him such a warm favorite in other Fox productions.
